JANUARY 2014

Hello and Welcome,

Wishing you all a very Happy New Year, I do sincerely hope that you and your ponies are all safe and have not been washed away with all this wet and windy weather. I must say I myself prefer the snow, but I know a great number of you do not.

The 2014 SEWPCA journal is all at the printers, as I write this, and will be available for collection at the spring show. We seem to loose so many with the wonderful Royal Mail and the cost of posting them out now is horrendous, but for those of you who don't make it to the spring show, they will of course be posted onto you, if you are unable to get them collected by others.

Our Agm, points awards and tack sale went well with a great number of tables being full to the brim with tack for sale. The weather sadly kept some away, but the list of apologies highlights this, when you get your mins of the AGM, later in the year.

I would like to draw your attention to the very new Traditional Welsh Trotting Classes, being staged by SEWPCA at both the spring show, and the summer show. Kent County are also staging them at 3.30pm on the Saturday afternoon, following the welsh inhand classes in the morning. So please consider supporting these by entering, you never know if this is a new clinch for your animals. These classes are being trailed for a possible 2015 qualifying competition.

We have a wonderful full committee now on board and it is hoped you will support all the Sewpca events being held in 2014 for you. We all look forward to meeting up with the whole membership throughout the year.

The WPCS are holding two open forums, which are accessible to our members and I thought it only right to give you notice of these, so you can all plan your dairies around them! A great number of you attended the one held in Guildford in March 2013, and I would hope many more of you will take up this opportunity to speak directly with members of the WPCS council and at least one member of the office staff. I can confirm that all your comments and issues are discussed within council, so however minor you might think things are, or LARGE, it is worth coming and speaking up at these events. Council is fully aware a great number of you cannot attend the AGM's every year, and bring things up there. So why not try and attend one of these open forums in March 2014.

The SEWPCA Spring Show

The SEWPCA spring show schedule is enclosed with this posting and I would like to draw to your attention the Ridden Traditional Trotting Classes (Not races) being held hopefully before the driving classes in the outside driving arena – weather permitting. These classes are being 'trailed' during 2014 with hopefully a qualifying competition being held for 2015, so please support these classes if you can. Kent County are also holding these classes at 3.30pm Saturday afternoon, following the Welsh inhand classes in the morning. So why not try your hand at these new classes, you never know you pony may well have found a new clinch. We have also added some plaited lead rein and first ridden classes, as sponsorship for these was promised at our foal show, giving a few more classes for members we hope.

The SEWPCA 2014 Journal

The SEWPCA 2014 Journal will be ready for you to collect at our Spring show on March 16th. We still have in stock back issues of our yearly journal, these can be purchased for the cost of £1.00 per book. Yrs. 1993/94, 1997/98, 1998/99, 2002,2003,2005,2007,2008,2010, 2011, 2012 & 2013.

SEWPCA Young Judges / NPS Young Judges. Would anybody interested in taking part in these two competitions this year, please get in touch with me as soon as possible as I am trying to arrange suitable education this year for you. This will hopefully come in the form of visiting a few different studs, together with gaining judging training from a variety of new and older judges. This will need you to be available to attend these events and move forward into also shadowing a judge or two, if we are able to arrange it insurance wise, at a show or two. Please remember our own Cheryl Hillman won the last M and M Competition at the NPS in 2013 ! This is why I am asking you to register your interest as soon as possible so that this can be put into practise. Contact me by e-mail angela.kember@btinternet.com or telephone 01580 211747
